

The diagram illustrates the sequence of laps in a race, showing the progression of 16 laps. Each lap is represented by a row of 16 nodes. The nodes are connected by lines, forming a dense web. The nodes are labeled with numbers 1 through 16. The connections represent the sequence of laps. The diagram is titled "Laps" on the left side.